

Billy Pugh Wvo-50s Work

The Billy Pugh Wvo-50S vest is a class V life vest, designed to offer efficient safety and fluctuation in sea and industrial environments. Made of sturdy vinyl, it provides durability and protection for workers exposed to waterfall risks. This vest includes an adjustable external strap, ensuring a safe and comfortable adjustment for different users. With lightweight only 2 lbs, it allows mobility without compromising safety. Certified by United States Coast Guard (USCG), meets international safety standards for personal protective equipment.

COD EUROSUL: 000311

IMPA: 331171

Part Number: ---

Approvals:

Specifications

Features

Class: Life Jacket Class V

Material: High-resistance vinyl

External Strap: Adjustable for better fixation

Weight: 2 lbs (0.9 kg)

Certification: Approved by USCG (United States Coast Guard)

Applications

Offshore platforms – safety for offshore workers

Ports and shipyards – protection for operators in aquatic environments

Naval construction – essential equipment for preventing water fall risks

Benefits

Efficient flotation: Keeps the user on the water surface in case of a fall

Light and comfortable: Ergonomic design for prolonged use without discomfort

High durability: Robust vinyl construction, resistant to abrasion and wear