

SAILOR HANDSET 6202 for Vhf dsc radio

The SAILOR 6202 Hand Microphone is an essential accessory for fixed VHF radios in the SAILOR 6200 and SAILOR 6300 series. Designed to ensure clear and reliable communication even in harsh maritime conditions, the microphone is rated IPx6/IPx8, making it waterproof and resistant to high-pressure jets and continuous immersion.

COD EUROSUL:	090194
IMPA:	---
Part Number:	406202A-00500
Approvals:	---

Specifications

Features:

Compatibility: VHF Radios SAILOR 6222 and SAILOR 7222

Water Protection: Certified IPx6 (resistant to high-pressure jets) and IPx8 (submersible)

Flexible Connection: Can be connected to the front or rear of the radio, with or without an extension cable

Robust Design: Impact-resistant and corrosion-proof

Applications:

Commercial and fishing vessels

Offshore platforms and port operations

GMDSS maritime communication systems

Benefits:

Superior Durability: Waterproof and resistant to harsh conditions

Flexible Installation: Can be connected in different positions on the radio

Reliable Communication: Clear and accurate audio, essential in emergency operations

The SAILOR 6202 Hand Microphone is an efficient and reliable solution to enhance communication in maritime operations, ensuring safety and performance at sea.

Technical Specifications:

Model: SAILOR 6202

Compatibility: VHF Radios SAILOR 6222 and SAILOR 7222

IP Rating: IPx6 and IPx8

Connection: Front or rear, with or without extension cable