

4 tips belt for life boat with stainless steel buckle

The 4-pointed 4-tone belt is a safety equipment designed to ensure protection during life-boat operations. Made with sturdy materials to support a rupture load of up to 150 kg. This product is reliable and safe, ideal for maritime emergency situations.

COD EUROSUL: 000005

IMPA: ---

Part Number: ---

Approvals: ---

Specifications

Features

Material: Built with durable and corrosion-resistant components

Rupture Load: 150 kg

Design: Four-point system for greater stability and safety

Applications

Used in lifeboats to ensure the safety of occupants

Rescue and evacuation operations on commercial and recreational vessels

Benefits

Reliability: Designed to meet the highest maritime safety standards

Durability: Resistant to adverse maritime conditions

Practicality: Easy to install and adjust

Technical Specifications

Rupture Load: 150 kg

Origin: Imported from China by Eurosul